

South Bay
KIDS DENTISTRY

Sealants:

Dental sealants are clear coatings applied to the surfaces of a child's molars to prevent the development of tooth decay. They work by preventing food and plaque from resting in the grooves and crevices of molars – an area especially susceptible to cavities.

